Notice: Blog of the Academic Committee

A blog of the academic committee of the college has been launched with the following link:

<https://nbpcmacademia.blogspot.com/>

This blog has been created to provide assistance to the students of NBPCM regarding their academic activities like classes and examination, also to keep them updated regarding NSS, sports and cultural and other activities. Students are advised to visit the blog regularly to get the updates.

All teachers, staff members and students of the college are requested to contribute their writings and send them to nbpcmacademic.blog@gmail.com by 15th of each month.

Please note:

- One of the purposes of this blog is to provide a forum of intellectual interactions among teachers and students of the college. We call for literary contents, timely and informative articles, including news, academic theories, socio-economic and cultural issues, opinion, personal experiences, and review articles.
- Writings may be in English or Bengali or it may be bilingual.
- Writings may contain images if relevant to the content of the writing.
- Please mention your name and designation/class and course.
- The final decision regarding publication of submitted manuscripts will be taken by our editorial team.
